CHAPTER VII. STATEMENT OF DISCLAIMER

7.1. At your own risk.

The Buyer fully recognizes, understands and agrees that he is using the TheJoy.io smart contract and acquires Joycoin tokens at his own risk and that the TheJoy.io smart contract and Joycoin tokens are provided, used and purchased without providing guarantees, promises or statements of any kind from the Suvorov Limited OÜ, and that in making decisions, the Buyer must rely on his own research.

CHAPTER VIII.

RISKS

Joycoin tokens can lose value. The user can lose all invested funds.

The User understands and assumes the following risks associated with the purchase of tokens, possession of tokens, and their use to provide or receive services of the company.

By purchasing tokens, the Buyer fully understands and accepts all associated risks.

8.1. Lack of legal and functional characteristics.

Joycoin tokens do not have legal characteristics, purpose, scope, external features, functions or characteristics, whether express or implied. Joycoin tokens do not give owners the right to use the TheJoy.io platform, even if the TheJoy.io platform is started, the TheJoy.io software development is complete, and the TheJoy.io software is realized and implemented.

8.2. Blockchain impediment risk.

The User acknowledges and understands that the blockchain may not conduct the User transaction at the time when the User is waiting, and the Buyer may not receive the TheJoy.io tokens on the same day when the Buyer has transferred the payment.

8.3. Safety of tokens.

The TheJoy.io tokens may be subject to alienation and / or theft. Hackers or other criminal groups or organizations may attempt to harm in various ways, including but not limited to malware attacks, DOS attacks, concerted attacks, smurf attacks and spoofing. In the case of program errors or irreparable defects, the holders of Joycoin token are not guaranteed any legal protection, indemnification or compensation.

8.4. Access to private keys.

The TheJoy.io tokens can be stored by the Buyer in a digital wallet, for access to which a private key, or a combination of private keys is required. Accordingly, the loss of the necessary private key (s) associated with the Buyer's digital wallet, where the Joycoin tokens are located, will mean the loss of the Joycoin tokens, the inability to access the balance of the Joycoin tokens, and / or any initial balances in the blockchain, created by third parties. Moreover, any third party that gets access to such a private key (s), including by accessing the wallet, may assign Buyer's tokens. The company is not liable for such damages.

8.5. New Technologies.

The TheJoy.io software, the TheJoy.io platform and all the issues outlined in the "White Paper" are new and unverified. The TheJoy.io software may not be suitable for completion, realization, or implementation. Possibly, the blockchain using the TheJoy.io software will never be launched, and the TheJoy.io operating platform will not be implemented. The User should not rely on the TheJoy.io software or the ability to receive tokens associated with the TheJoy.io platform in the future. Even if the TheJoy.io software is completed, realized and implemented, it may not work as expected, and any tokens associated with the blockchain using the TheJoy.io software may not have functionality that is desirable or valuable. In addition, due to the constant change in technology, the TheJoy.io tokens may become obsolete.

8.6. Dependence on third parties.

Even upon completion of the development, the TheJoy.io software will depend wholly or in part on third parties involved in its realization and implementation, as well as continuing its development, maintenance and support. No assurances or guarantees are given that third parties will complete their work, properly fulfill their obligations or otherwise satisfy someone's needs, which can have a significant negative impact on the TheJoy.io software and the TheJoy.io platform.

8.7. Changes to the TheJoy.io soft.

The TheJoy.io software is still in development and may undergo significant changes over time. Despite the fact that the company plans to introduce into the TheJoy.io software the functionality and characteristics that are described in the White Paper, the TheJoy.io can make changes to such functions and characteristics for a number of reasons, any of which may mean that the TheJoy.io platform does not meet the expectations of the Buyer.

8.8. Completion of the project.

The development of the TheJoy.io software can be cancelled for a number of reasons, including in the absence of interest from the public, lack of funding, lack of commercial success or prospects, or the departure of key employees.

8.9. Lack of interest.

Even if the TheJoy.io software is completed and implemented, and the TheJoy.io platform is launched, the future success of the platform depends on the interest and participation of third parties, such as developers and involved specialists. There are no assurances or guarantees that there will be sufficient interest or participation in the TheJoy.io platform.

8.10. Uncertain regulatory framework.

The regulatory status of cryptographic tokens, digital assets, and blockchain technology is not defined or regulated in many jurisdictions. It is difficult to predict how and whether state bodies will regulate such technologies. In addition, it is difficult to predict how and whether any government agency will amend existing laws, regulations and / or rules that affect cryptographic tokens, digital assets, blockchain technology and its applications. Such changes may adversely affect Joycoin tokens. The company may terminate the distribution of Joycoin tokens, developing the TheJoy.io software or terminate activities in the jurisdiction in case the government recognizes it as illegal or undesirable.

8.11. Risk of State Intervention.

As noted above, the industry in which the company operates is new and may be subject to increased surveillance and control, including the possibility of conducting investigations or enforcement actions. There are no guarantees that government agencies will not investigate the company's activities and / or use its powers in its respect. Such activity of state bodies can be the result of a targeted influence on the company. All this may impose obligations on the TheJoy.io with regard to court decisions, payment of fines or penalties, or cause the TheJoy.io to restructure its operations and activities or to stop offering certain products or services. All this can damage the reputation of the TheJoy.io or lead to an increase in operating costs, which may have a significant adverse effect on Joycoin tokens and / or the TheJoy.io software development.

CHAPTER IX. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. COMPENSATION.

9.1. Limitation of Liability.

To the full extent permitted by applicable law, the Buyer waives any rights or grounds for actions of any kind against the TheJoy.io Parties in any jurisdiction that may result in any damages to any party of the TheJoy.io. Neither Party of the TheJoy.io shall be liable to the Buyer for any kind of damage even if the TheJoy.io Parties have been notified of the possibility of such damages. The Buyer agrees not to seek compensation or refund from the TheJoy.io, regardless of the reason and whether the cause is defined in this Agreement.

9.2. Damage.

In accordance with this Agreement, the joint and several liability of the Parties to the TheJoy.io (regardless of whether it is related to a contract, guarantee or other basis) for damage to the User under no circumstances may exceed the amount received by the TheJoy.io from the Buyer.

9.3. Force-majeure.

The Buyer understands and agrees that the company is not liable and refuses all obligations to the Buyer in the event of force majeure, including natural disasters, labor disputes, or other industrial disturbances, failure of electrical, telecommunication, hardware devices, defects and software failures and smart contracts, earthquakes, storms or other natural phenomena, blockades, embargoes, riots, government actions or orders, terrorist acts or military actions, technological changes, fluctuations in interest rates or other monetary conditions and, for the avoidance of doubt, changes in any protocol related to the blockchain.

10.1. Pre-trial resolution of disputes.

The Buyer and the Suvorov Limited OÜ shall cooperate in good faith in the resolution of any disputes, disagreements or claims arising in connection with this Agreement, including with respect to the formation, application, violation, termination, legality or enforceability ("dispute"). If the Parties fail to resolve a dispute within ninety (90) days from the date of notification of such dispute, which has been received by all Parties, such dispute is finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the following section.

10.2. Mandatory arbitration.

Any dispute not settled within 90 days, as specified in Section 10.1, is permitted in accordance with the rules of the International Arbitration Center (IAC). The parties undertake to comply without delay with any decision and to waive their right to appeal the case in any form, since such a refusal may be valid. The Suvorov Limited OÜ and the Buyer pay their legal costs on their own. However, the Suvorov Limited OÜ reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to assume responsibility for any or all costs of arbitration.
